

Doesn't the FCC or our Congress have anything better to do than stop XM radio listeners from receiving the weather and traffic reports. This is a valuable service to people like me that are on the road a great deal. I can save time and gasoline by knowing ahead of time there is a traffic problem. Please quit wasting our valuable time and our money on trivial things and start worrying about matters of life and death.

Regards,
Richard Dallesandro